Facts about saints from:

1. Loyola Kids Book of Heroes: Stories of Catholic Heroes and Saints throughout History – October 1, 2003 by Amy Welborn (Author), Vitali Konstantinov (Illustrator)
2. Catholic Online www.catholic.org/saints
3. Saints for Kids by Loyola Press <http://www.loyolapress.com/saints-stories-for-kids.htm>
4. Saints: A Year in Faith and Art - 2005 by Rosa Giorgi
5. Lives of the Saints by Bart Tesoriero
6. Saints Tell Their Stories by Patricia Mitchell

A word about virtues:

The after school religious education program at my parish has recently implemented the teaching of the virtues. The program we are using is called Disciple of Christ: Education in Virtue by Sister John Dominic Rasmussen, O.P. The program breaks down the virtues into theological virtues, cardinal virtues, gifts of the Holy Spirit, and fruits of the Holy Spirit. In her resources, Sr. John Dominic gave the virtues listed for some of the following saints and I followed her same format and vocabulary for the others. While many saints could be described using multiple virtues, I've listed only one for each saint and tried to make it vocabulary that an elementary student could understand. That being said, most virtues will probably need some explanation. For more information on the virtues and teaching them to students, check out the Education in Virtue website at <https://educationinvirtue.com/>

Saints Included (in order they can be found in the packet):

Aloysius Gonzaga, Ambrose, Andrew, Augustine of Canterbury, Brigid of Ireland, Catherine Laboure, Dominic, Francis De Sales, Gemma Galgani, Gerard, Ignatius of Loyola, James, John Neumann, Lucy, Margaret of Scotland, Mark the Evangelist, Maximilian Kolbe, Monica, Peter Claver, Philip Neri, Rita, Robert Bellarmine, Teresa of Avila, Thomas More, Thomas the Apostle, Veronica, Vincent de Paul, Wilfrid

Note: These saints were selected because they were included in the clipart set that I purchased for this project.*
